To whom it may concern

Dear Sir/Madam,

Recommendation for Graduate Studies - KUMI, SABINA

KUMI, SABINA entered the Catholic University College of Ghana as an undergraduate student in August, 2020 and graduated in May, 2024 with a Second Class Lower Division in Health. I taught her two courses during her undergraduate studies at the school. These courses were in Health. She is creative and capable of organizing and expressing her ideas. She portrays maturity and creativity in both academic and non-academic issues. she is full of drive, emotionally stable, has a pleasant disposition, and gets on well with both her peers and those in authority. One can rely on her to get things done at the right time. she is capable of undertaking academic research and graduate work in a congenial atmosphere. she is endowed with academic potential and has great enthusiasm for academic work and is capable of undertaking and completing the program. her level of oral and written English is good. Based on the above assessment, I recommend her for graduate studies in your institution.

Yours faithfully,

Dennis
